

THE NATIONAL CENTER FOR STEWARDSHIP & GENEROSITY

Beth A Andrews, MBA, MEd, MA, CLSA™

Beth serves as the Secretary of the Executive Board of The National Center for Stewardship & Generosity. Beth is coordinating the development of The National Center for Stewardship & Generosity's education series on Biblical Stewardship. She serves as Executive Editor in the process and development of the BEST Stewardship Illustrated to continue expanding the technical reach of the ezine. Beth leads the website development, education development, and membership development of the Center's focus to bring continuity and integration of the Center's work.

The past five years have included Beth serving as an adjunct professor in the Business & Technology Division at Volunteer State Community College. Through this professorship, Beth not only teaches but also develops and directs online business courses for the college.

Beth holds an MBA in International Business, a Master of Education in Curriculum and Instruction, as well as a Master of Arts in Management and Leadership through Liberty University. Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary also conferred the master's level certificate in Steward Leadership. Beth received a Certificate in Financial Planning from Metro State College of Denver along with an undergraduate degree in Biology from Oakland City University.

Beth is a Certified Life Stewardship Advisor™ and member of The Stewardship Alliance. She administers The Stewardship Alliance's Life Stewardship Institute™.

Beth is an Independent Consultant with Arbonne International and teaches health and wellness around the globe. Impact on individuals, families, and communities are important stewardship factors which Beth is actively engaged in promoting. Stewardship of all of life's resources is key to developing others as Beth works with her team and clients to achieve their goals.

Beth and her husband, David, serve as Missions Directors with Northridge Church in White House, TN. They regularly can be found working on projects around the globe. They are both active in small business and microenterprise development in several nations. David serves in the children's ministry while Beth is active in worship ministry.

Beth and David have five wonderful adult children, one of whom is adopted in, and all their spouses and significant others, bringing 10 grand children that capture their hearts always and time often. Pops and Grandma are thankful for the closeness of their family and the gift of time, which is stewarded with them.
