Sponsorship pages should be prepared in Portrait layout. Sizing will need to include any bleeds for electronic print inclusion according to sizes allotted.

There should be no "Call to Action" included within the sponsorship placement. This would include things requesting action such as "Call us" "Complete this" or an instruction for the reader. Listing of identifying information such as website, physical address, phone number, etc. are encouraged. Thank you for being a sponsor of the Center and our activities as we work together to embed Stewardship concepts in the hearts and minds of people through information, mentoring, and training.

Attached on the next page are three examples of sponsorship placements reflecting a half page and two full page sponsorship examples.

Articles should be submitted in the preferred format of a Word document in a .doc or .docx format. Submitting anything other than that type of format may be more difficult to use within our ezine format; however, attempts will be made to utilize what is submitted.

Writing should be grammatically correct and free from spelling errors. Length is not something that is limiting to the ezine format; however, a minimum of 500 words is required for writing submissions.

If the article include pictures or graphics, please submit those as separate jpg or pdf formats to make certain the clearest rendering is available.

Please provide publication or copyright information for any works referenced, either in writing or visually, in your submission. This helps us give proper credit to the individuals and organizations that originally produced these works.

A headshot and a brief biographical description should be included when submitting the article so everything is included in one email together.

A submission is not a guarantee to publish. While we appreciate all queries, not everything will be a perfect fit. We will contact you if we are interested in your piece.

Deadlines for submission of finished sponsorship or articles are 01/02, 04/02, 07/02, and 10/02 each year for inclusion in the next ezine.

Submissions should be by email to bandrews@nationalstewardshipcenter.org for confirmation of sponsorship format and content.
